MozBackup

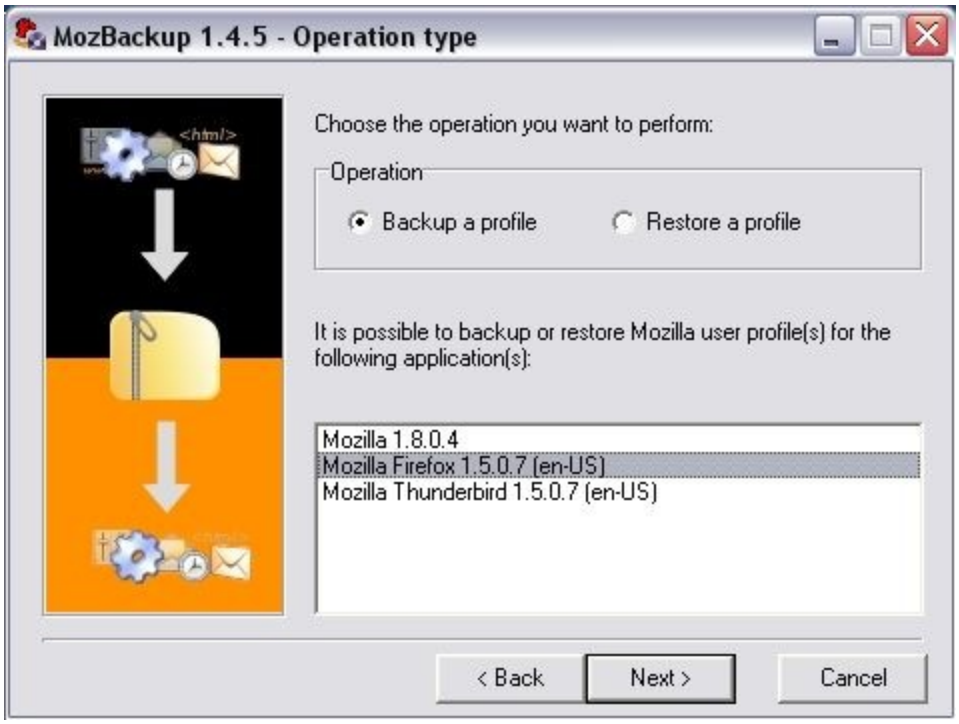
A Guide for Profile Backup and Restore

https://mozbackup.jasnapaka.com/

Backup Steps

When you first run the program, you will see the "Welcome Screen". Press Next.

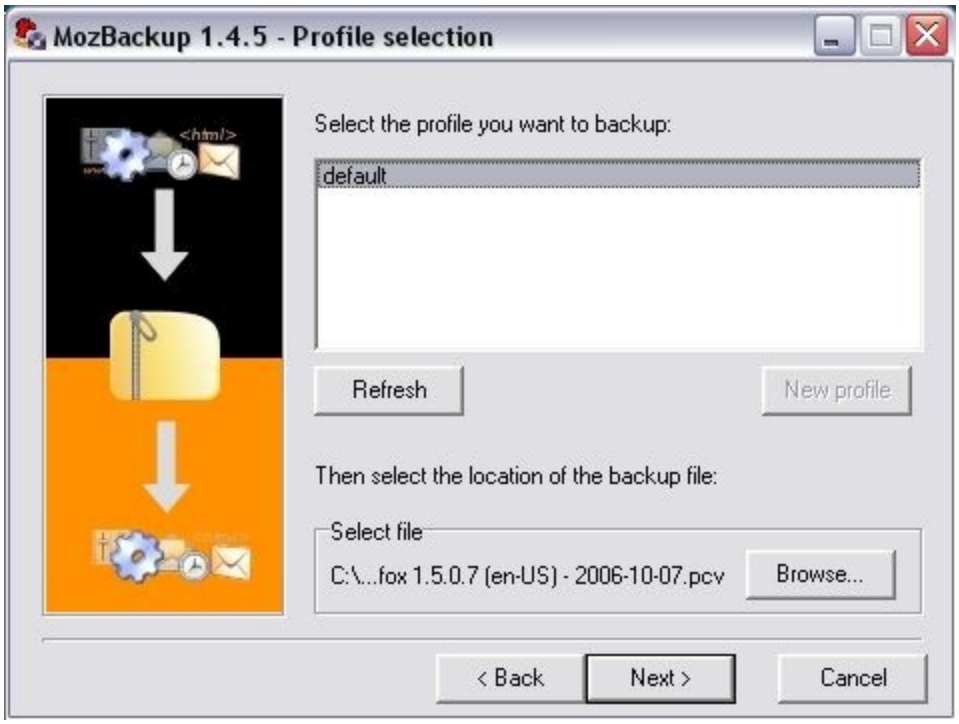
Backup Steps



Select an operation – Backup or Restore.

The bottom box will let you select the application to perform the operation on.

Backup Steps



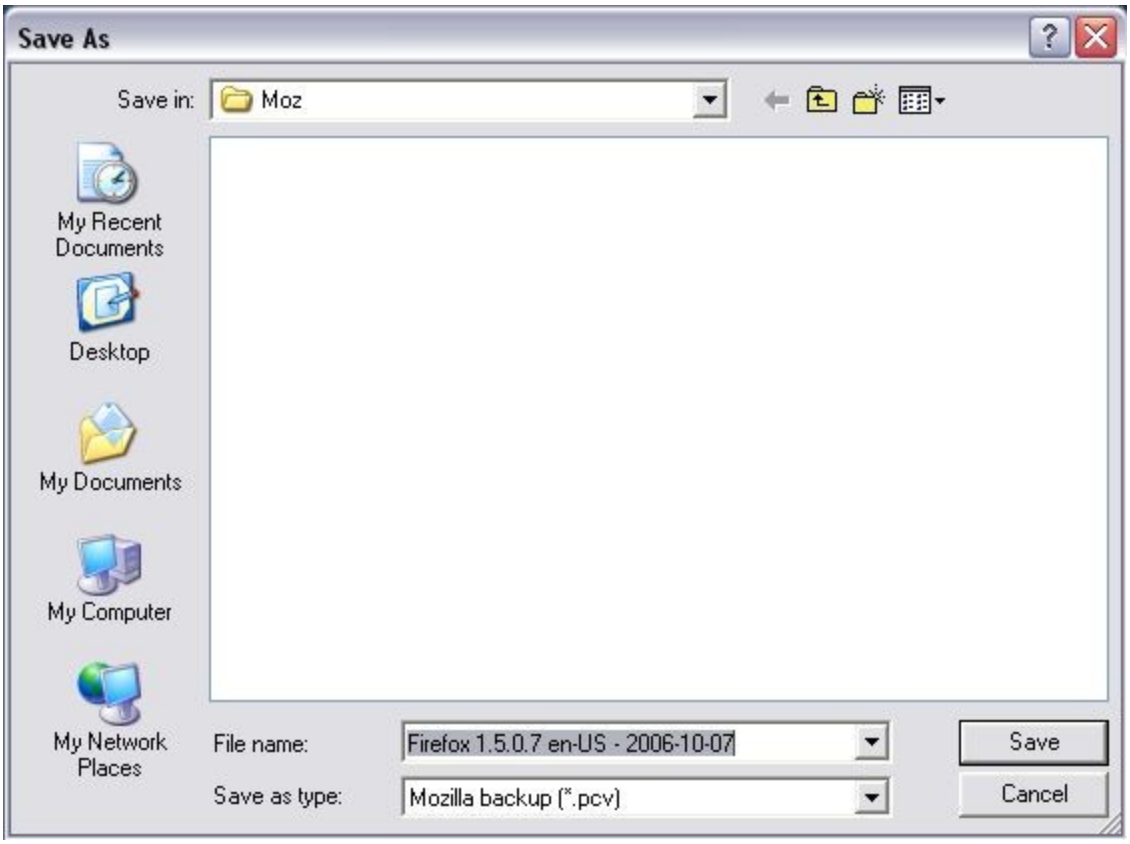
The top box lets you select which detected profile to backup.

The default profile that Mozilla programs creates is called “default”

The bottom box will let you choose the folder to store the backup files.

The default location is “My Documents”

Backup Steps



Selecting the “Browse” button will let you select which folder to save your backup files to.

Backup Steps

This screen lets you select which profile components to save to your backup file.

Please note:
Not all extensions are guaranteed to be backed up.

Backup Steps

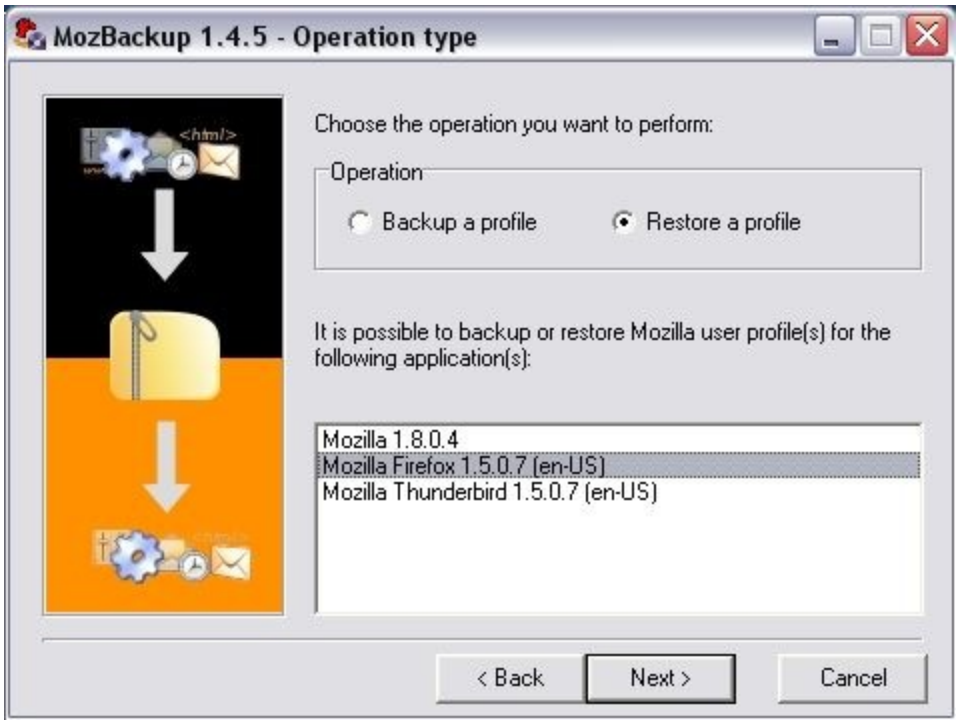
Once the backup is complete,
you may choose to close the program
or click the checkbox to restart the program.

Restore Steps

Select an operation – Backup or Restore.

The bottom box will let you select the application to perform the operation on.

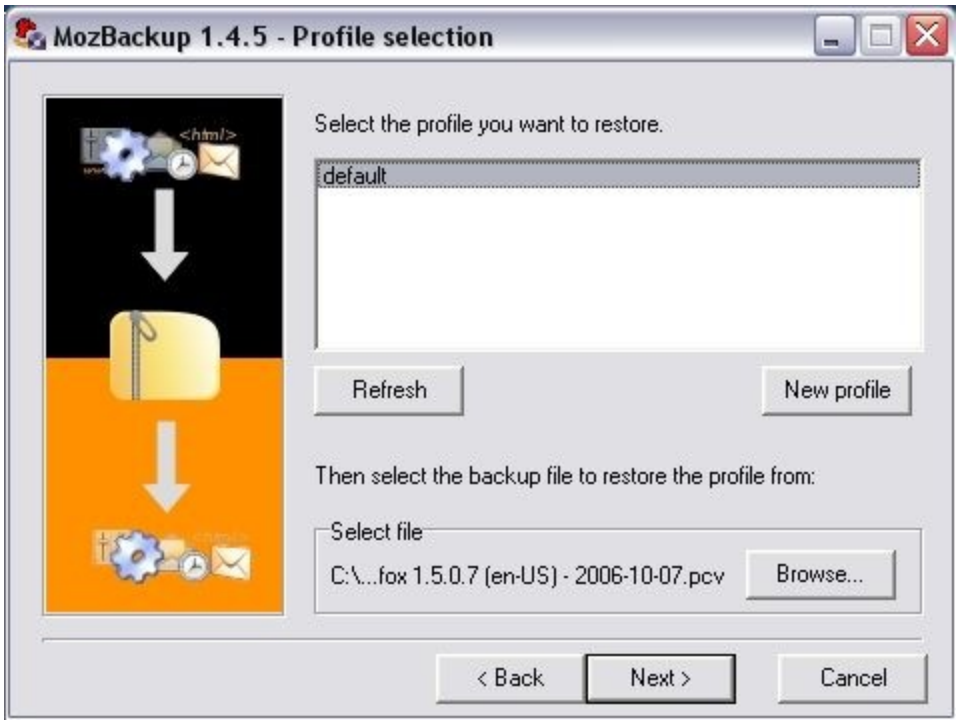
Restore Steps



Select an operation – Backup or Restore.

The bottom box will let you select the application to perform the operation on.

Restore Steps



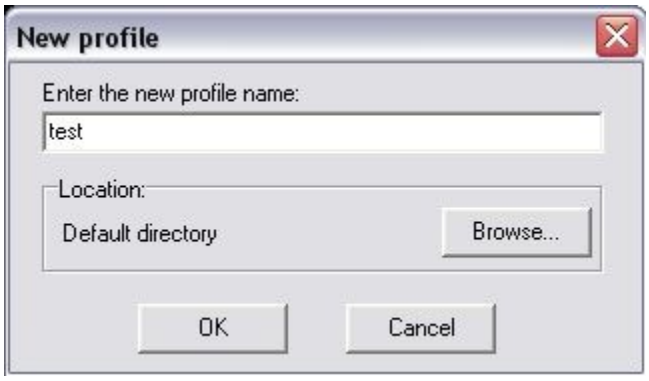
The top box lets you select which detected profile to restore.

The default profile that Mozilla programs creates is called “default”

The bottom box will let you choose the file to restore.

The default location is “My Documents”

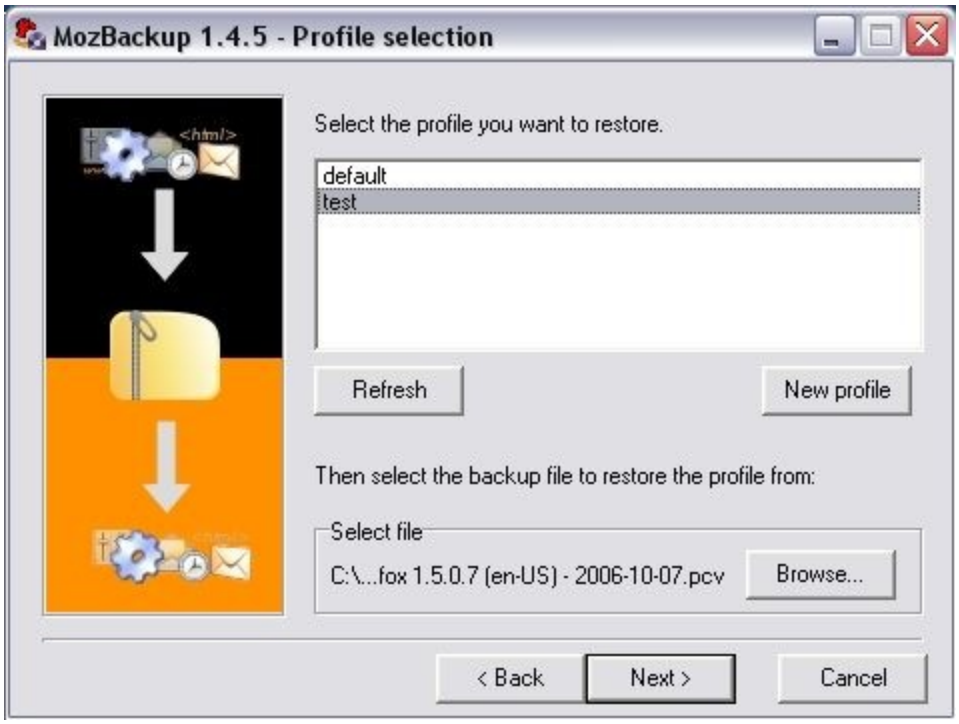
Restore Steps



If you click the “New Profile” button, you may create a new profile with the name of your choosing.
The name cannot contain spaces.

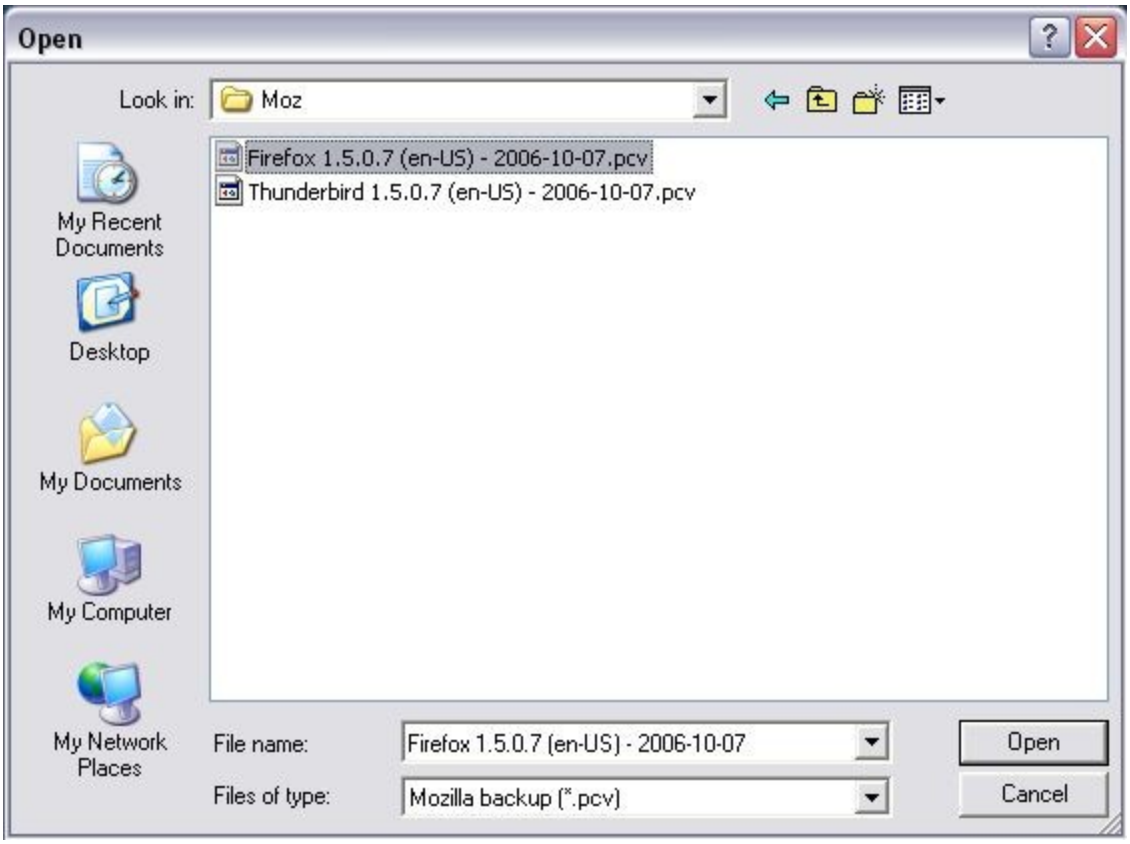
Please note:
You will need to access the Mozilla application's “Profile Manager” in order to switch between profiles.

Restore Steps



If you created a new profile,
click the “Refresh” button to update the list.

Restore Steps



Selecting the “Browse” button will let you navigate to the folder where your backup files are located.

Restore Steps

This screen lets you select which components to restore to the selected profile.

Restore Steps

Once the restoration is complete,
you may choose to close the program
or click the checkbox to restart the program.